

Bruce A. Mueller

Winning Best Solutions, LLC

June, 2012-Present

Founder-

Winning Best Solutions, LLC is a business development and solutions firm that works with for-profit companies, universities, and not-for-profit organizations to have clients reach new levels of success to win in the local, national, and global environment. The firm uses innovative practitioner based solutions developed for the specific needs and desired outcomes of the client. The focus is on: strategy, business process management, sales growth, technology, quality, and customer delight. Organizational areas emphasized include: human resources, information technology, company relationships and partnerships, revenue generation, and brand awareness.

Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, Illinois:

Oct., 2006-June, 2012

Chief Career Officer-

As the Chief Career Officer, responsible for all activities of the University's Career Management Center serving all of the students and alumni, except for the Law School. Created and implemented a new career management brand and strategic plan which has increased placements by over 50%. Developed and delivered 21 new professional development seminars and workshops for students and alumni that are also offered to parents. Through innovative and pro-active relationship marketing, the number of companies attending career fairs, employer events, on-campus interviews, and providing sponsorships has increased by more than 500%.

Chief People Officer-

In addition to being the Chief Career Officer was also the Chief People Officer until October, 2010 with responsibility for all Human Resource activities and operations. Implemented new HR strategy; compensation philosophy and structure; performance management program; benefit programs structure and funding model; employee and labor relations model and successful labor negotiated contracts; and implemented an HR Call Center.

Affiliated Computer Services: Managing Director, Global Human Resources Solutions

July, 2003-April, 2006

As the Managing Director, was responsible for all sales, finance, operations, technology, acquisitions, and management of this business that delivered improved quality and cost reducing integrated worldwide Human Resource and Information Technology solutions for clients.

Global clients won included: Motorola, Inc., Gateway, General Motors- Europe only, Chubb Insurance, Delta, Goodyear, and Rohm & Haas. Also, Affiliated Computer Services HR functions were in-sourced to this business.

The Global Human Resources Solutions business operations that were delivered in all regions of the world included: Benefits, Welfare Claims Processing, Compensation, Recruitment, Payroll, Employee Assistance Programs, Information and Technology systems, Selection and Assessment, Human Capital Development, Strategic Planning, Relocation, Employee Call and Transaction Centers, Performance Management, Change Management, and Core Process Redesign. This business had offices and operations in each region of the world.

Motorola, Inc.: Corporate Vice-President, Human Resources Operations and Technology
July, 1983-July, 2003

Responsible for the worldwide design, development, operation, delivery, funding, processing of: Benefits – including claims processing, Compensation, Employee Assistance Programs, Information and Technology systems, Selection and Assessment, Relocation, Core Process Redesign, Quality, HR Finance, Food Service, Immigration, Security, Strategic Planning, and Human Asset Planning. Also, was a member of Motorola's Software and Technology Council, Six-Sigma Quality Council, Import/Export Council, Ethics Committee, Retirement Investment Committee, and a Chief Privacy Officer.

Prior to joining Motorola, Mr. Mueller held professional and increasingly responsible management positions in Information Technology, Planning, HR, or Finance with Blue Cross Association, G.D. Searle, Foote Cone & Belding, and Johnson and Johnson.

Bruce A. Mueller has served on numerous board of directors and committees of an elementary school, colleges, hospitals, National Association of Manufacturers, Chief Privacy Officers, and the Conference Board. He is currently an adjunct professor at Harper College and at the Illinois Institute of Technology-Stuart School of Business. Bruce holds a BBA and MBA from Loyola University, Chicago, IL.